

CITY VISION

9 December 1999

Empowerment through skills . . . A total of 105 educators from townships including Lwandle, Langa and Gugulethu graduated from the Centre for Early Childhood Development this month. The centre offers training for NGO training agencies. An estimated 172 000 children benefit from the programme each year say sponsors Pioneer Food Group. SA has 6,5 million children under the age of six, of which a mere 9 % or 560 000 receive early childhood training.
